How to get here.

By train

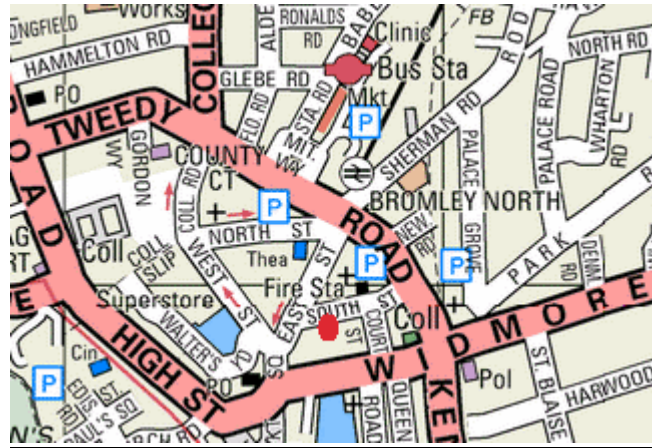

Trains run from London Victoria to Bromley South regularly. This station is only about ten minutes walk from our office. Take a right out of the station, and then walk up the high street. Cross over the road to the pedestrian's area of the high street. Walk straight up the high street and follow the high street round to the right towards Costa Coffee and Index. When you get here cross over the road and walk down East Street. South Street is situated off East Street on the right hand side. The entrance to Seymour House is the first door that you come to on the right hand side of the street.

The nearest station to Seymour House is Bromley North. Trains run to here from Sundridge Park and Grove Park only. When you leave the station, cross over the road to East Street. South Street is situated towards the end of East Street on the left hand side.

By car

From the M25, take junction 4 on to the A21 towards Bromley. Continue along the A21 for approximately 10-15 minutes until you are approaching Bromley town centre. On the left before this, you will see a Ford garage, Bristol Street Motors. Immediately after this you will reach a set of traffic lights where you need to bear right on to Kentish Way, continuing to follow the A21. You will then reach a major junction with traffic lights, where you need to go straight ahead to Tweedy Road. A turning for South Street can be found on the left. Seymour House is marked by a red circle for your convenience.
